Discourses of Brigham Young

“We are trying to save the living and the dead. The living can have their choice, the dead have not. Millions of them died without the Gospel, without the Priesthood, and without the opportunities that we enjoy. We shall go forth in the name of Israel’s God and attend to the ordinances for them. ... We will build temples and officiate therein for those ... who would have received the truth if they had had the opportunity” (Discourses of Brigham Young, sel. John A. Widtsoe [1954], 404)

President Brigham Young

Wilford Woodruff

“We have blessings which have never been given to any other generation since the days of Jesus Christ and the Apostles. ... You hold the keys of the destiny of your fathers, your mothers, your progenitors, from generation to generation; you hold the keys of their salvation. God has put that power into your hands” (in Conference Report, Oct. 1897, 47).

President Wilford Woodruff

President Russell M. Nelson

“Jesus wants me for a sunbeam? Yes! And you too! He also wants us as bonding blacksmiths—creating celestial welding links—to curb the curse of family fragmentation. The earth was created and temples provided so that families can be together forever. Many, if not most, of us could repent and be converted to more temple and family history work for our ancestors. Thus, our repentance is necessary and essential for their repentance.” (Ensign, May 2007).
